Machines. People.
Masterpieces.

CHEMNITZ. ZWICKAU. REGION. tells a powerful, creative story full of contrasts. From impressive industrial facilities to world-class art and a vibrant tradition of technology: museums, monuments and historical sites bring the past to life. Whether at the August Horch Museum, on a ride on historic railway tracks or in textile treasure troves such as the Pfau Brothers Cloth Mill in Crimmitschau – here, you can experience technology in all its glory. Art lovers can discover works by Schmidt-Rottluff, Dix or Pechstein, while music fans can tread in the footsteps of Schumann. Architecture enthusiasts can experience Art Nouveau at Villa Esche or medieval history at the Priesterhäuser in Zwickau. From the Karl Marx Monument to the Karl May House, from the Göhren Viaduct to Wechselburg Priory: CHEMNITZ. ZWICKAU. REGION. is a place where people, machines and masterpieces merge in a unique way.

Treasures. Masterpieces.
Landmarks.

An impressive number of castles and palaces beckon at every turn in CHEMNITZ. ZWICKAU. REGION., transporting visitors to times long past and telling of the region's pioneering significance for Saxony. Stroll through the history of the Schönburg family in the castles of Glauchau, Wolkenburg Castle on the Mulde River, or the enchanting Waldenburg Castle with its stately park, which has served as a historical backdrop for many a film. Discover life in the late Middle Ages high up on the hill at Kriebstein Castle, marvel at the unique Renaissance architecture of a moated castle in Klaffenbach, or explore multimedia escape stories from the time of the Second World War in the former prisoner-of-war camp at Colditz Castle. A visit to the historic walls of Rochsburg Castle can be wonderfully combined with savouring the exquisite chocolate creations from Choco Del Sol. With additional discovery tours, hands-on activities and guided tours, even our youngest visitors will find that boredom is simply not an option.
